

Frank Chappel, Percussion

Texas Band Director, 20 years, Percussion Director, 14 years. Performer and educator within the Drum Corps International community, four years as a marching member of the Phantom Regiment Drum and Bugle Corps. Graduate of N Illinois University.

David C. Fullmer, Band

Instrumental music teacher, 35 years, and active guest conductor. Former Director of Bands at Snow College, Associate Director of Bands at CSU Fresno, Asst Director of Bands at BYU Cougar Marching Band, and Director of Bands at UVU. As Director of Bands at Timpview HS, Marching Band took first place in its division at the final show of each season for 21 consecutive years. Has conducted the UAM Band on 12 European Tours. Doctoral of Musical Arts degree in Instrumental Conducting from the U of Washington. Masters and Bachelor degrees from BYU.

Scott Hagen, Band

Recently retired as the Director of Bands at UofU School of Music, as well as conducting the UofU Wind Ensemble. Guest conductor and clinician. His ensembles are known for their unique timbre. Bachelor's degree, Concordia College in Moorhead, MN; Master's degree in music education, U of MN. 1995 UofU Associated Students "Teacher of the Year." Was conductor of the official Utah Olympic Spirit Band for the 2002 Winter Olympic Games.

Erin Steele, Band

Band director for 22 years and educational clinician and consultant for Conn-Selmer Institute and the Hal Leonard Corporation. Bachelor's in music education, U of Georgia. Has written articles and been a contributing editor for The Instrumentalist magazine. Has written chapters for the GIA publication series Teaching Music Through Performance. Guest conductor for numerous honor and all-state bands and was founder and administrator of the Cobb County Summer Band Camp. Resides in Scottsdale with her husband.

Grant Farmer, Choir

Lifelong musician specializing in Vocology and Music Education, teaching at both the HS and college levels as well as conducting community, church, and opera choruses. Currently Director of Choral Activities at The College of Idaho. Doctoral Candidate in Choral Conducting at the Jacobs School of Music, Indiana University. Masters of Music in Choral Conducting, Westminster Choir College, undergraduate degree in Vocal Music Education, Middle Tennessee State University.

John McDonald, Choir

Asst Professor of Music Education, Director of Choirs at McKendree U, conductor of St. Louis Young Men's Chorus, and professional ensemble singer with Church of St. Michael and St. George. Member of American Choral Directors Association. Doctor of Musical Arts degree in conducting, U of Missouri-KC Conservatory of Music and Dance, Master of Music in conducting from E Carolina U, Bachelor of Music Education, Middle TN State U. He lives in Swansea, IL with his wife and two sons.

Robert Baldwin, Orchestra

Director of Orchestral Activities and professor of music at UofU; Music Director, Salt Lake Symphony. Previous conducting positions with the U of Kentucky, Lexington Philharmonic, New American Symphony, N Arizona University, and Flagstaff Symphony orchestras. Accomplished violist. Guest conductor in St Petersburg, Russia, Finland. Degrees from the U of N Colorado, U of Iowa, and U of Arizona. Numerous teaching awards.

Bill Bitter, Orchestra

Forty years with Gilbert AZ Public Schools, Director of Orchestras and Chairman of the Performing Arts Department at Highland HS. VP of HS Orchestra Activities. His orchestras have performed in Carnegie Hall. 2014 AZ Music Educator of the Year Award.